THE FOUNDATION FOR AFRICAN EMPOWERMENT

Volunteer Position

Web Designer

Background

Children with disabilities are the most stigmatized, discriminated and excluded in education and other aspects of society. They are the most vulnerable to violence, abuse, neglect and exploitation. Excluding them from realizing their rights to education makes them the most likely of all population groups to be living in poverty today and in the future.

The Foundation for African Empowerment (FAE) is a registered nonprofit organization founded in order to empower and change lives of children with disabilities. Its mission is to improve access to quality inclusive education for Tanzanian children with disabilities through providing support services, awareness raising and advocacy so that they can reach their full potentials and thrive in their communities. We work toward building a fully inclusive, supportive and protective Tanzanian society for children with disabilities. Our main office is located in Arusha, Tanzania.

FAE is seeking for a passionate, committed and skilled volunteer from within or outside Tanzania to join its management team in the capacity of Web Designer in order to assist in advancing its mission through website development. While virtual volunteering is accepted for this position but preference shall be given to a volunteer who is willing to join the management team based in Arusha, Tanzania. Additionally, preference shall be given to a volunteer who can commit to help the organization for a minimum of two (2) weeks and who demonstrates a strong commitment to the FAE's mission. Any volunteer from outside Tanzania choosing to relocate to Arusha or already in Tanzania and in need of accommodation shall be facilitated with a free accommodation. Other further benefits shall be discussed with the right candidate.
